

GO AWAY WORLD OF HOPE

Robbie L. Rogers

Go away oh world of hope,
Go away this world I see.
You sway the way the breezes go...
Taunting... to and fro.

There is no peace within your reaches,
No joy in future, nor in past.
There is no hope, but only lies
And shame to call my name!

Go away this world of hope.. and dreams,
Go anguish, agony and defeat,
And farther still... the foolish striving,
My vain attempts to crush your wretched woes.

I've lost the will for fighting now...
For the things I once sought to do.
You won the battle, you beat me down,
Coerced me through and through.

And now I'm old and full of pain,
With eyes too tired to see,
So go away... this world of hope,
Go away..... and give me rest.
