Ya Ever WWW.wonder.net???
Robbie Rogers

Are you really there?
I mean really...?
How do I know???
I send...
I receive?
How do I know?

Are you who you say you are;
or am I bouncing signals off of strange moons???
How do I know?

Ten percent...
those who answer Polls,
do not believe people walked on the moon!!!
That's what "THEY" say;
the keepers of stuff.

Was President Clinton really from Arkansas;
or simply from another planet????

Does area 51 exist???
Who knows,
only those who know they are really there,
even begin... to know.

Are you still there?
I don't even know.
Were you ever there???
I don't even know.

Hello!!!
Do you still hear me;
Did you ever hear me???
Or, were you simply just a bouncing ball in the universe of time....
a proverbial ping pong ball of life stuck in the House of Wax???

I leave it up to you.
Are YOU really there???
